

Year 3, Term 5 Banbury Vs Italy.

Key Skills

Communication

With support, communicates effectively by sharing ideas, offering advice, opinion and information.

Performing in front of an audience.

Enquiry

Can identify different kinds of information they can collect from primary and secondary sources and a range of methods for collecting this.

Comparing cultures and landscapes.

PSHE:

Bravery and pride.

French:

Numbers up to 30.

Days of the week.

Literacy:

Writing and editing a fantasy story.

Exploring letter writing for a variety of purposes.

Understanding and writing scripts for a play.

Creating and performing alternative endings for well-known traditional tales.

ICT:

Spreadsheets:

Inputting data and using this to create different types of graph.

Using simple mathematical formula to answer questions.

Hook:

Looking at artefacts from Italy.

End Product:

Design and Technology day
designing pizza.

Topic:

Comparing the housing, transport and landscape of Banbury and Italy, with a focus on Rome and Venice.

Outdoor Learning.

Exploring the landscapes of Banbury in comparison to Italy.

RE:

Investigating the question:

Does Jesus have authority for everyone?

Numeracy:

Understanding number patterns and 4-digit numbers.

Measuring in litres and millilitres, metres, centimetres and millimetres and converting.

Adding using compact addition and counting –up to subtract. Using these methods with RUCSAC to solve problems.

Fractions including equivalence and adding.

Music:

African drumming.

Indoor P.E: Striking games focusing on Badminton. This will be outside when possible.

Swimming: Mrs Ellmer's class.
Every Monday.

Outdoor P.E: Athletics.

Science–

Investigating what plants need to survive.

Looking at the life cycle of a plant.

Growing a plant from a seed and keeping a diary of its development.

Art/ D&T:

Designing and making a pizza complete with packaging.